Form 990 - Organization's Mission

Our mission is to support families to partner with the community to help children thrive. All American Families, DBA Families Plus is dedicated to enabling at-risk children of Delta County, CO to become healthy, educated and productive young people.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment

DBA Families Plus's goal is to nurture at-risk children in Delta County area. Our model program provides mentors, caring community support, and training to help these children build a healthy future. Their families are supported also in order to best provide for these children. The children that are helped live in families with severe chronic problems and inadequate resources. Due to poor economic circumstance in Delta County, many families here struggle to cover essential needs all of the time. Often the family situation involves trauma, violence and neglect. Each child has a psychologist or social worker who does repeated testing and designs behavior change programs implemented by mentors, teachers, parents, and other trained volunteers. Children are drawn into successful experiences through volunteer help with homework, grade monitoring, tutoring, experiences in healthy families and enrollment in sports and other skill-building activities. Fees and transportation to sports, camps, clubs, etc. are provided. Various grants, Medicaid/government funding and donations are used to provide for the children and their families.
